Comments
Going over specific problems such as Strategic Form Games.
Frances was an awesome TA who was super patient with us and was extremely willing to help when someone needed to catch up.
Going over problem sets really helped me feel prepared for exams
good flexibility with student needs
Going over concepts covered in class.
Francis was awesome. Very helpful at going through the homework problems for the course.
teaching was excellent
Examples and active application practice for the concepts from lecture
Going over and breaking down equations and theorems we use in class
Lecture review via slideshow presentation
The breakdown of information on the slides.
The explanations and examples of concepts that we were unable to discuss as thoroughly in class.
Going over specific problems! The lectures deal more so with broad concepts, so having the time to do concrete examples was helpful.

If you could suggest one thing to improve the recitation, what would it be?

Comments
Perhaps more opportunity for questions.
N/A
The content was often repetitive, maybe better to give more examples instead of just repeating the same contexts more structure to recitation Nothing
It would have been nice to talk a little bit more about all the political theory from lecture, but the practice problems were good too
N/a
Perhaps some sort of hands–on group activity that applies to international politics in some way
No suggestions
N/A, the recitation was exactly how a recitation should be.
